NOTICE TO PARTY BEING SERVED

If you do not agree with the modification/change in child support AND you were served with this Request inside the State of Arizona, you have twenty (20) days to ask for a hearing. If service of process is made outside the State of Arizona, you have 30 days in which to ask for a hearing.

After the party who filed the Request files proof of service and if you do not request a hearing within the time allowed, the Court will review the Request and enter an appropriate order modifying the support award. If an error is noted, the amount awarded may be different from the amount requested, but the modification will not be greater that the amount requested.

In the event the Court has serious concerns regarding the accuracy of the information, or if a substantial mathematical error is found, the Court may set the matter for hearing. If either party requests a hearing within the time allowed, the Court will set a hearing. No order will be modified without a hearing if a hearing is requested within the time limits. If you wish to request a hearing, you may obtain the following forms from the Self Service Center.

- Request for Hearing
- Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount
