COURT SERVICE PROVIDER LIST
(FAMILY LAW CASES)

Disclaimer: The Superior Court of Yavapai County does not endorse these attorneys or providers.

Any member of the State Bar of Arizona in good standing may join the Provider List. An attorney can be in good standing but have disciplinary actions pending. Before using any attorneys on this List, you should use due diligence and find out from the State Bar whether there are any such actions pending. This Provider List is a resource for people who want help with their legal situation. The Court assumes no responsibility for the quality of the professional services of attorneys or providers on this list. The information provided on this Provider List comes from the attorneys or providers and is not changed in any way by the Court. The attorneys and providers on this Provider List are not agents of the Court, and all services and activities of these individuals are conducted independently of the Court. All arrangements for appointments, cancellations, payment of fees, termination of service, and other related matters of service quality and delivery are between the attorney or provider and the client. The Court is not responsible or liable for any aspects of the service delivery. All discussions of fees for services, determination of specific fees, written agreements on fees to be paid are the responsibility of the attorney and the client. The Court does not and will not determine the appropriateness of any fee for service. Persons who meet the qualifications and conditions of participation for the Provider List must qualify for enrollment on the Provider List. If you are an attorney interested in joining this list, you must be in good standing with the State Bar of Arizona and agree to offer task by task services (also known as unbundled services or limited scope representation). Attorneys / providers can register for the list by emailing Court Administration at yavapaicourtadmin@courts.az.gov.
