E. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

1. At the time of Grand Jury returns, the Court will assign the case to the appropriate trial Division and set an arraignment in Division 5 of the Superior Court.
2. Civil post-judgment and domestic relations post-decree matters shall be assigned according to the above distribution.
3. Cases heard in Early Disposition Court (EDC) shall be assigned by the Judge presiding over EDC in the manner set forth in this Administrative Order and that assignment shall apply to pending matters as well as future Petitions For Post-Conviction Relief, Petitions For Termination of Probation, Petitions to Enact, Writs of Habeas Corpus, Restoration of Rights and Designation of Offenses.
4. Arraignments are waived when a change of plea and sentencing occur in Early Disposition Court (EDC).
5. Cases assigned to a problem-solving court which are determined to be no longer appropriate for the therapeutic court shall be assigned to Division 5 of the Superior Court, unless otherwise ordered by the therapeutic court judge.
6. Cases which involve post-conviction relief (PCR) proceedings, restoration of rights or designation of offense, shall be assigned to the sentencing judge, if the sentencing Judge is currently assigned to receive criminal cases. If the sentencing judge is not currently assigned to receive new criminal cases, the case shall be assigned according to the above distribution. Once assigned by the Clerk, the newly assigned judge shall consult with the sentencing judge who presided over the case to determine whether the case should be assigned to the sentencing judge pursuant to the Rules of Criminal Procedure or in the interest of justice.

7. Criminal cases in which prosecution was deferred and a motion has been filed or there is a post-adjudication matter, with the exception of problem-solving courts covered in this Administrative Order, shall be assigned to the sentencing judge, if the sentencing judge is currently assigned to receive criminal cases in the same judicial district in which the case originated. If the sentencing judge is not currently assigned to receive new criminal cases in the same judicial district in which the case originated, the case shall be assigned according to the above distribution. Once assigned by the Clerk, the newly assigned judge shall consult with the sentencing judge who presided over the case to determine whether the case should be assigned to the sentencing judge pursuant to the Rules of Criminal Procedure or in the interest of justice.
8. Any pending case previously assigned to a judge not currently presiding over cases in Yavapai County and not otherwise specifically addressed above shall be assigned consistent with the above distribution.
9. The Presiding Judge may assign or reassign cases outside of this order as necessary.

DATED at Prescott, Arizona, on the 16th day of September 2025.

HON. JOHN D. NAPPER
Presiding Judge
